Rastogi Commission Report

3521. SHRI N.K. PREMACHANDRAN: Will the Minister of HUMAN RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT be pleased to state:

(a) what are the major recommendations of Rastogi Commission Report;

(b) whether UGC has exempted Ph. D. (Degree) holders from National Eligibility Test on the basis of the recommendation of Rastogi Commission; and

(c) if so, the details thereof?

THE MINISTER OF HUMAN RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT (DR. MURLI MANOHAR JOSHI): (a) The major recommendations made by Rastogi Committee regarding revision of pay scales and service conditions of teachers in universitities and colleges are as follows:

* Good academic record, 55% at the Master's level and qualifying the NET or an accredited test should be the minimum qualification for the appointment of lecturers.
* The probation should nromally be for a period of 24 months, extendable upto a further period of 12 months in case of unsatisfactory performance.
* Posts of professors be provided in the postgraduate colleges.
* There is need for introducing the conccept of pre-induction training programmes for the teachers through academic staff colleges.
* For placement in the senior scale, a lecturer may offer himself/ herself for review after 4 years in holding a Ph. D. degree and 6 years if holding an M. Phil degree and 7 years if not holding M.Phil/ Ph.D.
* A Lecturer (Scale) can offer himself/herself for review after 6 years of experience as Senior Lecturer, for placement in the Selection Grade.
* The Merit Promotion Scheme, having dual emoluments or, for the matter, any such scheme be dispensed with.
* The Universities/Colleges must observe 180 actual teaching days.
* UGC guidelines regarding minimum number of actual teaching days, programme of examination reform and workload for teachers in the Universities and Colleges issued in 1989 prescribed that the workload of a teacher in full employment should not be less than 40 hours a week for 30 working weeks in an academic year, which should be ensured.
* The practice of appointing part-time teachers should be sparingly used and the remuneration given for such work must be based on realistic norms.

* The code of professional ethics may be made part of the regulations of UGC and incorporated in the Acts and Statutes of the Universities to be made a part of service agreement to ensure implementation.

(b) No, Sir.

(c) Does not arise.
